A STRANGE SPECTACLE—THE SEA FULL OF LOBSTERS.—On the recent passage of the Uncle Sam from Panama to this port, while the ship was passing the Island of Margarita and Point Lazaro (Magdalena Bay) the sea was observed to be full of small lobsters, about eight inches in length. The gentleman from whom we receive this information, assures us that they were so thick that in a space of a yard square, there was, on an average, two of them, and the ship was four hours running through the shoal. Their number may be imagined from the fact that they were caught in buckets while the ship was going at full speed.—S. F. Alta.

Didn't Preach to Horses.—Mr. Spur-was going at full speed.—S. F. Alta.

Didn't Preach to Horses.—Mr. Spurgeon lately preached in a large field, in Wales, to twenty thousand people, and among those present were a large number of the leading gentry of the country. Previous to commencing worship, it was represented to the preacher that it would be advisable for the people to move aside, to enable the several carriages-and-four to approach nearer the platform; upon which he replied that he did not come there to preach to horses, but to men; four horses and a carriage would occupy the ground of fifty people, and therefore the horses and carriages must remain where they were.

Coal Discoveries.—We were shown a COAL DISCOVERIES .- We were shown day or two since, some superior specimens of coal, brought from a point situated on the Straits of Fuca, about 30 miles west of Dungeness, by Capt. J. K. Thorndike. The pieces were obtained near the surface, and the appearance would indicate the presence of a quality which admits of no superior on the Pacific coast. They are as clear and clean as black diamonds. It is a popular and apparently well founded opinion that our whole northern coast abounds in extensive and valuable coal deposits.—P. T. Northwest.

sive and valuable coal deposits.—P. T. Northwest.

Extraordinary Mirage.—As five persons were lately returning to Compiegne, from the market at Soissons, one of them is topped and called the attention of his companions to an extraordinary appearance in the sky, where there could be seen distinctly the steeple of a church surmounted by a weathercock, all of immense size. It remained visible for about ten minutes, and gradually faded away. When they returned to their homes, they mentioned what they had seen, but no one believed their story. There can be no reason, however, to doubt the truth of their narration, as many similar phenomena, the effect of mirage, have been seen at different times. In 1778, the inhabitants of Vesoul (France-Comté) were thrown into consternation by some one seeing in the air the representation of a gigantle warrior, who sword in hand appeared to threaten the town. The peoplo rushed to the churches, hoping to avert by prayers some dreadful calamity which they imagined was about to fall on them. A man named Normand, however, being somewhat more clear-headed than his neighbors, on attentively examining the supposed spectre, found that it was than his neighbors, on attentively examin-ing the supposed spectre, found that it was the reflection in the clouds of the statue of St George, which then stood on the top of one of the towers of the church.

The Town Site Claim.

No light has latterly been thrown on the claim of the Hudson Bay Company to the town-site. Every member of the Legislature is perfectly mute on the question. What cogent reasons they may have for such unacconntable torpidity, we cannot say. The government party and govern-mental press have admitted that the colony has a just claim to the proceeds of the The Reform party same thing. Who, then, is to blame for not bringing the subject more prominently under notice? Why has it been so question the shelved? Why is not an investigation of Obstruc-Why has it been so quietly The whole tendency of Obstructive policy has been to ignore any inquiry into the question. The spasmodic motion of Mr. Gordon for information remains unanswered, so far as we have heard. The absence of the Executive in British Columbia prevented an answer. Since which the question has not been mooted; and from all we can learn there is no disposition on the part of the Obstructives to disturb its repose. Why the Reformers have not pressed the question, is not explain-Whatever reasons either party may have for not urging an investigation, we have none. On the contrary, we have many for an inquiry. Not a shadow of doubt exists but the law of the question is on the side of the colony and against the Company. "The Governor and Adventurers of England trading into Hudson's Bay," have sold the town lots. The only title to sell was grounded on their Grant of Vancouver Island. That authorizes them to take only one-tenth of the receipts for their agency in making the sales; but instead of quenty nine-tentus of the process of the receipts for the against one tenth querity nine-tenths or the process octoning to some body else, and that somebody else is the Colony of Vancouver Island. The assertion that the town site was sold to the Fur Trade Branch of the Company is not worth a straw. Every one who has purchased a lot directly of the Company purchased it and obtained a title from the "Governor and Adventurers." The For Trade Branch is not even mentioned. Were the Fur Trade Branch (so called) the proprietors, why, we ask, do they not make the The answer is clear. No title has been vested in them. The original title existed, or where not sold exists now, in the "Governor and Adventurers." To them then we look to disgorge the nine-tenths of the sales.

Had the Fur Trade Branch obtained a title from the "Governor and Adventurers' and then conveyed it back, we could understand how the latter could keep the proceeds But even then it would have to be shown that the Fur Trade Branch was an entirely independent body-independent of the original company. For if the Fur Trade Branch is, as it is, only the company's self in a local form, the company in alienating the land, on which the town is built, to the Fur Trade branch would be simply conveying it to itself. In that case any number of like conveyances would not alter the nature of title. The original title would still be vested in the "Governor and Adventurers." But the Fur Trade Branch has made no titles. It does not claim to make titles; showing conclusively that whatever divi-dend the Fur Trade Branch expects, the title is and has been solely vested in the "Governor and Adventurers as conveyed to them by the Crown Grant,

Such being the true state of the case it not difficult to compute the immense debt due to the colony accruing from the nine-tenths of the proceeds of town-site sales withheld. Nor is it difficult to see why the Hudson Bay Company are inclined to exert all their influence to control the local government. They have too large an amount at stake to permit an investigation. The chances are all on their side, if the settlement if the question is referred to Downing street. An exparte statement there is very likely to answer its end; and the colony may whistle for its just dues.
What therefore we would urge—as we have over and over again till the government party acknowledged its truth-is the jusinto that claim. If no investigation will be made here, let a statement go to Downing street to enlighten the Colonial Office, and insist on the indebtedness being paid over We certainly expect to our treasury. We certainly e some immediate steps to be taken. majority of the House refuse, then let the minority send a memorial to England. If neither majority nor minority provoke an inquiry, or profler a statement of the case to the Imperial authorities, let their gence be treated as it deserves. Then the only resource to get our own, will be for the people to act in their primary capacity, and furnish the Home Government with the real state of the question. It is a mere waste of time to delay action; and the oner steps are adopted to further the object, whilst the settlement of the Hudson Bay Company's affairs are pending, more likely are we to recover our due.

Only let the seals be fixed to the settlement, and we may bid farewell to a lawful claim, and have ample time to regret our neglect when the weight of general and special taxes fall periodically upon the

A WHISKY VENDOR KILLED BY INDIANS. Our readers may remember that about three weeks ago we chronicled the arrest of a man named Samuel Howard, and his squaw Lucy, on a charge of selling whisky to Indians. Howard was bound over to be of good behavior, and Lucy was fined £10. The bonds were furnished and the fine paid, and the two set at liberty. Nothing profiting by his arrest, Howard, about a week after, filled a small cance with 300 gallons of alcohol, cleared it as camphene, and started for the coast, retailing it to such of the savages who desired it. Not being able to dispose of his entire stock on this side, he crossed over to the American territory, and while engaged in selling his vile stuff to some Indians near Seabec, got into a difficulty with them, and was killed, and made prisoner. His death is generally looked upon on the other side as a piece of retributive justice, and is not regretted. No attempt, we learn, will be made by the American authorities to arrest the Indians who killed him. His tragical end should prove a warning to others engaged in the same trade.

THE STEAMER .- The Pacific, if it be the intention of her owners to continue riancisco, is the to-day. Fears are enfer-tained, however, that she has been bought off by the mail company, and will cease to run here in future. We hope that no such arrangement has been consummated, as it would prove a serious drawback to our business men-to say nothing of the inconvenience which the public generally would sustain.

INTERFERING WITH AN OFFICER. - H. Wood was examined yesterday morning in the Police Court on a charge of having interfered with officer Blake, on Thursday evening last, while the latter was endeavoring to arrest a couple of chaps who were indulging in a fist fight on Waddington alley. The Police Judge, after hearing evidence, considered the charge not proven, and dismissed the case.

MASS MEETING .- All interested in the Incorporation of the Town, should attend the meeting this evening at the Colonial Thea-It has been promised by the Governor, and our representatives were pledged to do it, if possible. The advantages of incorporation are too apparent to need recapitulation. Everybody should turn out, and make such a demonstration as will convince our members that we have the capacity to man-age the town affairs, and that great necessity exists for them to incorporate us speedily.

ACCIDENT TO A SEAMAN .- Yesterday morning as the seamen on board the ship Rayendale, lately arrived from Melbourne were weighing anchor, for the purpose of proceeding up the Sound, one of their numer sustained a very severe fracture of the thigh by being struck with one of the flukes of the anchor. He was conveyed to the Royal Hospital, where he received proper attention from Dr. Trimble.

FIGHTING IN THE PUBLIC STREETS. Augustus Sampson, and Robert Kennedy, alias " Brockey" were fined twenty shillings each yesterday by the Police Judge for fighting in Waddington alley the evening previous.

THE INDIANS .- The Northern Indians are leaving in large numbers for their homes, and we notice a very sensible and gratifying decrease in their number within the past week. The chief of the Hydahs, blind "Paul Jones," is down again, and will with a considerable number of his tribe, all winter.

SAILED. - The ship Ravendale left the outer harbor yesterday for Seabec, Washtice of our claim, and the wrong done the colony if our Assembly will not inquire cargo of spars for Australia.

A Fiend Inscanate--- A Druse Chief.

The Chief of the Druses in the Syrian inurrection is named Kange, and rivals the infamously renowned Nena Sahib in his bar-A body of his wretches while on the march from their district to the seige of Zahleh, stopped at the village of Kenaku, near Damascus, for refreshment. On learning that about one hundred Christian gees had sought the protection of the Shieks of the village, Kange demanded them to be brought forth, and the Moslem Shiek, trembling for his own life, allowed them to to take fifty of the fighting men out in front of the place, and there, in sight of their wives and children, saw their heads cut off, and their bodies mutilated. This blood-thirsty Kange then proceeded on his way. He is also reported to have planned the massacre of Hasbeiya. However this may be, he was killed in the attack upon Zahleh, and his troops were completely routed. He also conducted the attack upon Rasheya. A letter to the Greek Patriarch at Damascus says:

When the Druses began the attack, quested us to deliver our arms to hich we did. After taking possess our arms to them requested us to deliver our arms to them, which we did. After taking possession of them, they said, we do not wish for your arms, but we want you to leave the town, and go to Damascus, to which we replied, 'Just as you like.' They said we must get ready to leave on Tuesday. We said, 'very well;' but suspecting them we sent our women to the houses of their Sheiks with handkerchiet's around their necks, (a mark of humiliation and surrender.) And so, also, we went with our priests and lead, the said our necks mark of humiliation and surrender.) And so, also, we went with our priests and leading men, having handkerchiefs on our necks and going round to the houses of all the Sheiks, we said to them, 'our blood, our property and our tamilies are all at your disposal; and behold, our priests and leading men, kill of us whomsoever you choose; and if you wish our children, we are ready to offer them to you? Then they gave us peace and proclaimed the same; but alas, that peace did not continue for more than a quarter of an hour, when they began to burn the town and fire upon us in the beginning of the night.

It was a dreadful hour. They killed the men, cut the children to pieces, throwing them into the fire, violated the women and plundered the property. If any men reached you these are all that remain. They took the arms of the murdered. We who are still alive are at the seraglio without food, having no homes, as the town has been burned to ashes, and the Druses come every day to the soldiers and demand the remainder of the women and children to butcher them.
If we do not die of hunger, we may die of

What a fearful, horrible record is this. Inwas received the following day that all had been killed, and the Christians of Rasheya have been blotted out of existence.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cher-

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry — The only pure and genuine Balsam is, and for the last twenty years has been, prepared by Skrii W. Fowle & Co., of Boston: and their printed name, as well as the written signature of I. Butt's, appear on the outer wrappers As you would avoid the spurious and have the genuine, take no other!

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.—This invaluable remedy is the best one extant for the safe, sure, speedy and permanent cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchilis, Asthma, Pleurisy, Pneumonia, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bleeding at the Lungs, pain in the breast or side, and in fact every form of Throat, Chest and Lung Complaint, as well as Coxymption itself.

This household remedy should be in the hands of every family and individual, as a timely application of it to a slight cold will cause immediate relief; while cases of long stunding, obstinate, and apparently incurable character, will surely yield to its wonderful currative powers and its great adaptation to the wants of man when afflicted.

Surely cured by the OXYGENATED BITTERS.

CALIFORNIA EVIDENCE.
Mokelumne Hill. Cal., June 16th, 1858.
Having suffered for fifteen years with Dyspepsia, in Its worst form, and having consulted with the best physicians, and tried everything recommended without relief. I was induced to try the Oxygenated Bitters, and before I had taken one bottle I found myself much better, and continued taking them until I was entirely cured, and now enjoy as good health as I ever did in my life. I take pleasure in recommending them to all who are similarly affilted.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST :- The history this case for the week preceding death was such that doubts might be entertained as to the proximate cause of deceasing. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday mornings, on rising from bed, he complained to his associates of being unwell; still he left his lodgings about ten in the morning, and did not return until about this time on each successive night. On Wednesday, the day of his death, respiration was heavy and labored, so much so, as to arrest the attention and excite the alarm of his landlady. Being in an adjoining room about five o'clock in the evening, she suddenly observed him ceasing to make those labored efforts to catch breath which alarmed her fears during the former part of the day, and upon going to his room found him in a sitting posture, his head reclining upon a bed and one hand dropped against the ground. He had ceased to be. The coroner ordered Dr. William Wallace, R. N., to make a post mortem examination of the heart, in the pericardium of which was found a large quantity of serum. The heart was as large as that of an ox—in fact, au incredible size. The left and right ventricles intensely hypertrophied, and more or less fatly deposit over the whole surface of it. In the worta, or large artery at the middle of the root of the heart, was found a piece of fibrous matter about as thick as the little finger and two and one-half inches long; and within the left ventricle, two pieces of adipose matter, each nearly half the size of a hen's egg. Here, also, was a large aneurismal sack, which burst into the worta, causing death. The chambers of the heart were filled with coagulated blood. All the valves were thiokened by an atheromatous deposit; one of the tricusfied valves was perforated by a small hole, through which a goose quill might be passed. Altogether it presented the most extraordinarily morbid appearance on record; and how a man could live so long exempt from more urgent symptoms of distress and suffering than characterized his last days, is more than I can well determine.

James Dickson, M. D of this case for the week preceding death was such that doubts might be entertained

House of Assembly.

House of Assembly.

Thursday, August 30, 1860.

House met attwenty-minutes to 4 o'clock. Present—Speaker Helmcken and Messrs. Waddington, Caty, Gordon, McDonald, Tolmic, Crease.

Mr. Waddington asked whether the member for Victoria District (Mr. Franklin) had received leave of absence from the Speaker. He had seen him on board the San Francisco steamer last Sunday, and understood he had gone below.

The Speaker replied that Mr. Franklin had not applied for leave of absence.

ONE PER CENT TAX.

The House went into Committee on the bill to levy a tax of one per cent on the real estate of the colony. The bill was taken up at section 24, providing that the sheriff shall advertise the property in one of the newspapers' circulated in the colony, and shall post up in six conspicuous places in each district, where property is to be sold and the place where such sale is to be taxed, which was passed.

The following sections were also adopted without discussion.

Sec. 25—The property so advertised

The following sections were also adopted without discussion.

Sec. 25—The property so advertised must be sold within two hours after the hour set for such sale.

Sec. 26—If no bidder appears, the sale may be adjourned from time to time.

Sec. 27—Within one year the party whose property has been sold for taxes, may redeem the same, by paying the amount of the purchase money, with twenty per cent. added as interest; the purchaser, in the meantime, is not to wantonly waste the property.

FRIDAY, August 31st, 1860.
House met at 15 minutes to four o'clock. Present—Speaker Helmcken, and Messrs. Foster, Crease, Green, Cary, Gordon, Waddington, Southgate.

ELECTION COMMITTEE.

Mr. Waddington asked how the Election Committes was getting on?
The Speaker said the Board of Examiners were looking into the recognizances.

LIQUOR BILL.

The bill to regulate the sale of fomented and spirituous liquors was read a third time and passed.

THE ROAD BILL.

The House went into Committee of the Whole for the improvement of the roads in the colony; and a'ter the passage of several sections, rose and reported progress.

Mr. Crease—Mr. Speaker, I should like to know whether the clerk's salary cannot be paid regularly. It is six months since he has received any money. It is very hard that an officer of this House should be voted in and not receive his salary regularly.

The Speaker—As far as I know, this matter is irremediable. I have mentioned the fact to His Excellency; but it seems we have not yet raised money, although we have voted it.

have not yet raised money, annough we have voted it.

Mr. Crease—Why is not justice dealt out with an even hand? Why are the clerks in other departments paid, and the clerk of the House remain without his salary.

Mr. Cary—The salary of the clerk was to be paid out of a specific fund; the salaries of other departments is paid out of the moneys received by them.

Mr. Waddington—The expenses of the other departments, if I mistake not, are comprised in the same category as our own.

The Speaker—As soon as the One Per Cent. Tax Bill is passed, the clerk's salary will no doubt be paid out of the first money that comes in.

will no doubt be paid out of the first money that comes in.

Mr. Foster—I believe the House has a right to order any salary to be paid it sees proper. When he saw the article in the BRITISH COLONIST relative to this matter, he felt sorry that the statement was correct. He hoped to see the clerk's salary paid promptly in future.

The House then adjourned to Monday, 3d Sept., at 3 o'clock, P. M.

Prepared only by . . W. D. MOSES.

FOR THE TOILET.

This Invigorator is most particularly for Ladies after illness, to be used with the Oil prepared by the proprietor. First saturate the head with the Invigorator; rub well with a hair-brush; then oil. It will also relieve the headache, and give the hair a darker glossy color, and the free use of it will keep both the kin and hair in a healt sy state.

Ladies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the toilet, both in consideration of its delicate and agreeable perfume and the great facility it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with it, can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls. When used on children's heads, it lays the foundation for a good head of hair.
